Last update 23/10/2026

Under section 50 (1) (c) of the Firearms Act 2015 SA the Registrar of Firearms must maintain a Register of Firearms Prohibition Orders issued under this Act which must be made available to the public by electronic or other means. Regulation 99 Firearms Regulations 2017 SA sets out the information to be recorded on the register.

Where there is a need to clarify the identity of a person against a name on the Register of Firearms Prohibition Orders contact:-

Firearms Branch (Mon - Fri 9am to 4pm): phone 08 732 23346; or After Hours – SAPOL Call Centre: phone 131 444.

In accordance with the Firearms Act 2015 SA, a Firearms Prohibition Order can impose one or more of the following conditions.

1. The person is disqualified forthwith from obtaining any firearms licence or permit under the Act.
2. While a firearms prohibition order is in force against the person, any licence or permit under the Act is suspended.
3. The person must not acquire, possess or use any firearm, firearm part or ammunition.
4. The person must forthwith surrender to Police all firearms, firearms parts or ammunition owned by the person.
5. The person must not be present at the grounds of a firearms club, or the range of a commercial range operator, or a place at which a person carries on the business of manufacturing, repairing, modifying or testing firearms, firearm parts or ammunition, or buying, selling, or hiring out firearms, firearms parts or ammunition or (any place prescribed by Regulation).
6. The person must not become a member of a firearms club.
7. The person must not be in the company of a person who has a firearm on or about their person or under their immediate physical control.
8. The person must not reside at a premises on which there is a firearm, firearm part or ammunition.
9. The person is required to inform each other person of or over the age of 18 years who resides or proposes to reside at the same premises as the person, of the fact that a firearms prohibition order is in force against the person, and the person must ask each such person if they propose to have a firearm, firearms part or ammunition on the premises.
10. Any person who supplies the person with a firearm, firearm part or ammunition is committing an offence.
11. Any person who has a firearm, firearm part or ammunition in their immediate physical control or on or about their person whilst in the person's company is committing an offence.
12. Any person who brings a firearm, firearm part or ammunition onto the premises in which the person resides is committing an offence.
