South Australia Police provides a visible and responsive police service for all South Australians.

In support of the LGBTIQ Community, SAPOL has established a network of GLLOs (Gay and Lesbian Liaison Officers).

GLLOs:

- Offer additional support to victims of crime.
- Assist in obtaining statements and referring victims to support services.
- Establish networks and build trust between police and the LGBTIQ community.

You can request contact with a GLLO through your local police station.
