

Prohibited Weapons Exemptions

Entertainment (Clause 8)

Schedule 2 of the Summary Offences Act 1953 determines the exemptions relating to possession and use of prohibited weapons.

Entertainment (Clause 8)

A person may possess a prohibited weapon if the person requires the weapon for providing lawful and recognised entertainment of other persons that reasonably requires the use of possession of that weapon.

If this or any other exemption does not apply to your possession and use of a prohibited weapon, consider surrendering the weapon to a police officer.

Delivery to Police (Clause 4)

A person may possess a prohibited weapon if the person is delivering the weapons, as soon as reasonably practical, to a police officer.

If you unlawfully have a prohibited weapon, utilise the clause 4 exemption to deliver the weapon to a police officer.

Compensation is not offered for weapons surrendered through clause 4.

Note – the clause 4 exemption is not available to a person who ceased to be exempt in accordance with previous legislation (reg 7(4) Summary Offences (Dangerous Articles and Prohibited Weapons) Regulations 2000.
