

Essential Traveller category	Type of evidence to present at border
National and State Security and Governance	Letter detailing person is physically required to be present in South Australia with written approval of their manager (being of an executive level or higher) or an officer of a military or defence organisation.
Emergency Service Workers	Approval from SA Health if not part of duties eg. Emergency situation, identification (fire fighters, paramedics, ambulance officers and police officers) and letter stating you are required to be physically present in South Australia in the conduct of their duties or left South Australia in the conduct of their duties and are returning to South Australia having conducted those duties.
Commercial transport and freight services	Letter from employer stating the duties required to be undertaken and details of the locations, ABN number and includes the employees name and address.
Remote or isolated workers	Letter from employer stating that the employer is applying risk mitigation strategies during periods of work and stating duties required to be undertaken and details of the locations and includes the employees name and address.
Cross border community members	Identification that shows address or if applicable evidence of employment or education; or providing care and support to, or receiving care and support from, another person; or obtaining food, petrol or other fuel or medical care or supplies.
Health Services	Approval letter from the Chief Executive of the Department for Health and Wellbeing, the South Australian Chief Public Health Officer or a deputy Chief Public Health Officer.
Specialist workers in essential sectors	Letter detailing that the person is required to conduct a service that is time critical and where the provision of the service requires that the person be physically present in South Australia.
Urgent medical, dental or health treatment	Approval letter from the Chief Executive of the Department for Health and Wellbeing, the South Australian Chief Public Health Officer or a deputy Chief Public Health Officer.
Passing through	Proof that end destination will accept you, Itinerary documentation, bookings etc.
Compassionate grounds	Approval letter from the Chief Executive of the Department for Health and Wellbeing, the South Australian Chief Public Health Officer or a deputy Chief Public Health Officer.
Foreign diplomatic or consular staff	Identification of foreign diplomatic or consular staff and letter stating reason for travelling to South Australia to perform official duties.

Information accurate as at 28 July 2020