Dear Hon Mr Pangallo

In reference to your application made pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act 1991 (FOI Act), access was sought to:

“Copy of any correspondence of the following but is not limited to, email, text message, file notes, reports logged, phone calls and diary entries between police officers of the Operations Support Branch and the Licensing Enforcement Branch - including between SAPOL Assistant Commissioner, Linda Fellows, of the Operations Support Branch and Greg Hutchins of the Licensing Enforcement Branch in relation to the AOSMA application to have its liquor licence varied to serve alcohol in aluminium cans.”

South Australia Police (SAPOL) has located documents that fall within the scope of your request. The documents are numbered and described in the following schedule. The schedule contains the details of the determination in compliance with section 23. In particular, note the grounds on which access has been refused, including the reasons which are contained in the schedule.

CLAUSE FOR REFUSAL

Clause 6(1) of Schedule 1 of the FOI Act which states:

“A document is an exempt document if it contains matter the disclosure of which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of information concerning the personal affairs of any person (living or dead).”

Your rights to review

If you are dissatisfied with this determination, you are entitled to exercise your right of internal review in accordance with section 29(1) of the FOI Act by completing a PD362 Application for Internal Review form, which can be downloaded from <https://www.police.sa.gov.au/services-and-events/freedom-of-information> or available upon request at your nearest police station. Alternatively, an application may be made in writing to the SAPOL Freedom of Information Unit. This application must be lodged within 30 (calendar) days after you receive this letter with a fee of $39.00, if applicable.

Disclosure Log

In accordance with the requirements of Premier and Cabinet Circular PC045, details of your FOI application, and the documents to which you are given access, will be published on the SAPOL website Disclosure Log. A copy of PC045 can be found at https://www.dpc.sa.gov.au/data/assets/pdf_file/0019/20818/PC045-Disclosure-Log-Policy.pdf. If you disagree with publication, please advise the undersigned in writing by 20 January 2023.

Yours sincerely
